Cultural Data Project Workshop
April 16

The Southwest Minnesota Arts Council is sponsoring a workshop, “Getting Started with the Cultural Data Project”, at the SMAC office in Marshall on April 16, from 7:00 – 8:30 pm.

We strongly encourage all SMAC-region arts organizations to attend this workshop, presented by Cultural Data Project (CDP) staff, to learn about how to enroll in the project. At some point in the near future, arts organizations may be required to be enrolled in CDP in order to qualify for SMAC grants. Having created a CDP profile will also be helpful if you’re planning to attend the Nonprofits Assistance Fund financial training on May 21.

SMAC will provide mileage reimbursement to attendees from arts organizations in the 18 counties of Southwest Minnesota. Continued on page 2

Nonprofits Assistance Fund
Financial Training May 21

On May 21, Nonprofits Assistance Fund (NAF) is coming to the SMAC region to offer special financial training for arts organizations!

Through funding from the MN State Arts Board, NAF is able to provide training on financial assessment and planning for arts organizations, including additional information about fundamental nonprofit financial topics. Thank you to all the arts organizations who took time to fill out a survey about their specific needs for this workshop, which is now able to be tailored to SMAC-region organizations.

The training will be held on May 21 from 10:00 am to 2:30 pm at the Marshall-Lyon County Library. SMAC will provide mileage reimbursement and lunch to arts organization representatives from within the SMAC 18-county region. Continued on page 4

SMAC Artist Retreat May 3

Everyone is welcome to join us for Southwest Minnesota Arts Council’s 2014 Artist Retreat on Saturday, May 3 at the Danebo Folk School, Tyler, MN. Along with a full day of workshops and activities for all disciplines on Saturday, you have the opportunity to join us the night before for networking and on-site overnight lodging.

Here are just some of the opportunities and activities planned for the weekend:

- Bobbie Alsgaard-Lien, a painter from Rushmore, will guide you through a fun, hands-on painting activity.
- Saara Myrene Raapana, a Pushcart Prize-nominated poet from Marshall, will show you how to set your writing free by using form techniques.
- Kelley Nemitz of 360 Design House in Canby will talk about how to start a website to feature your artwork.

Prairie Star Award Nomination

What is the Cultural Data Project?
Once per year, arts and cultural organizations enter financial, programmatic, and operational data into CDP’s online form, and can then produce a variety of reports designed to help increase management capacity, identify strengths and challenges, and inform decision-making. They can also generate reports to be included as part of the application processes to participating grantmakers.

An emerging national standard, the CDP also empowers researchers and advocates with information to make the case for arts and culture, and equips funders with data to plan and evaluate grant-making activities more effectively.

Getting Started with the Cultural Data Project - New User Orientation
In this introductory session, we’ll discuss how consistent data collection can help your organization make decisions, plan for the future, and build convincing cases to stakeholders.

Our new user orientation will also provide an overview of working with the CDP, including:

- Registering your organization
- Navigating the CDP website
- Entering your organization’s data into a CDP Data Profile

Designed with first-time users of the CDP in mind, this session will also provide tips on how to help your organization get the most out of the CDP through our useful reporting tools and other resources.

Go to the SMAC website, www.swmnarts.org, to register and to learn about additional training opportunities with CDP.

Toulouse-Lautrec exhibit at the Washington Pavilion in Sioux Falls

Washington Pavilion and Citi present “Toulouse-Lautrec & His World”, January 25 through June 8, 2014 in the Visual Arts Center’s Everist Gallery. The Toulouse-Lautrec collection is housed at the Herakleidon Museum in Athens Greece and has traveled outside of Europe for the first time — a once in a lifetime opportunity to see this collection in the United States.

At the center of this exhibition is a rare collection of approximately 150 works on paper by Toulouse-Lautrec. Many of the works are accompanied by appropriate passages from French literature, photographs, and other objects, in order to better capture the social atmosphere of the time. Financial Assessment and Planning for Arts Organizations
As an arts organization, you know that financial assessment and planning is at its best when you have the most relevant information to aid your decision-making. It is important to know which tools will help you get a handle on your organization's current financial situation and how to use that information to plan for the future. At this interactive training designed specifically for small arts organizations, Nonprofits Assistance Fund will teach you to:

- Use trends to get a picture of your organization’s future
- Develop annual and multi-year budgets with planning in mind
- Recognize the components of business models in your organization and how they work together
- Communicate your financial position in a way that accurately tells your organization's story

This training will utilize reports from the Cultural Data Project (CDP) to demonstrate these financial concepts. If you are currently participating in CDP, you are strongly encouraged to bring your own organization's reports from CDP, including trend reports, comparison reports, and the Financial Health Assessment. If your organization is not currently participating in CDP, attend the “Getting Started with the Cultural Data Project” workshop at the SMAC office in Marshall on April 16, from 7:00 – 8:30 pm.

We hope to see you on May 21 for this training! Go to the SMAC website, www.swmnarts.org, to register.
