Find your artistic inspiration this spring at SMAC’s 2016 Artist Retreat

Join artists from across Southwest Minnesota on May 6 & 7 for SMAC’s annual Artist Retreat, a day and a half of arts inspiration and networking held at Danebod Folk School in Tyler, MN.

This year the retreat has been extended to include afternoon workshops on Friday, along with a full day on Saturday. You may choose to attend just Friday, just Saturday, or join us for the entire event along with overnight lodging at the historic Danebod Folk School.

Workshop sessions have been created to appeal to artists of all disciplines. You’ll be able to customize your retreat by choosing from two or three options for each session. Here are some of the opportunities and activities planned for the weekend:

- Have your artwork professionally photographed for free. Bring up to three artworks and receive high-quality digital files for future use in grant applications, work samples, or gallery solicitation. (Friday & Saturday)
- Learn about making community-driven, site-specific theatre with Ashley Hanson and Andrew Gaylord of Placebase Productions. (Friday)
- Discover how to use MN Artists’ online professional development tools and discuss artists’ participation in digital communities with Emily Gastineau of MNArtists.org. (Friday)
- Get hands-on with tips and techniques for extreme theatre makeup with Tammy Grubbs of the Calumet Players and Re-Vamped Art Studio. (Friday)
- Hear about the projects and processes of artists who have received SMAC grants, and share your own. (Friday)
- Use persona poetry to improve your writing under the instruction of published poet Saara Raappana. (Saturday)
- Create your own fiber art during a session by Victoria Hanna McKinney. (Saturday)
- Try your hand at screen printing with David KelseyBassett. (Saturday)
- With Eric Doise of SMSU, explore using fiction to write about and through trauma. (Saturday)
- Learn how to price your work with Naomi Schliesman of Springboard for the Arts. (Saturday)

More sessions and activities are still being added. A full schedule with workshop descriptions, presenters, and other details will be sent to you upon registration.

Registration options:
- Friday afternoon only (workshops & meals): $15
- Saturday only (workshops & meals): $15
- Friday & Saturday workshops and meals: $25
- Friday & Saturday workshops, meals, and Friday night lodging: $40

Go to www.swmnarts.org to register by May 2, 2016.

Area artists awarded $21,000 in SMAC grants

The Southwest Minnesota Arts Council has awarded $21,000 in grants to area artists under the following programs:

INDIVIDUAL ARTIST: ESTABLISHED CAREER ARTIST GRANTS provide up to $5,000 to aid established career artists in the advanced stage of their career development with projects that will advance their career.

Agnes Alsgaard-Lien, Rushmore, $5,000 to complete eight large paintings in her skewed-perspective accordion series.

Marjorie Nilssen, New London, $5,000 to study with Bruce Dorfman at the Art Students League of New York.

Lucy Tokheim, Dawson, $5,000 to create an online portfolio/exhibit that examines over thirty years of her artistic explorations in Scandinavian Folk Art with clay, canvas, textiles and painting.

INDIVIDUAL ARTIST: DEVELOPING ARTIST GRANTS provide up to $1,500 to aid emerging artists at an early stage of their career development.

Remi Anderson, Marshall, $1,500 for audio and video equipment to record his classical guitar music.

Kathleen Marihart, Madison, $1,500 to take classes from Jennifer Stone and complete ten abstract collage acrylic paintings.

Ellen Starr, Hutchinson, $1,500 to explore new thermoplastic materials to create sculptures.

Honor an artist or arts advocate from your community

The SW MN Arts Council is seeking nominations of artists and arts advocates from the southwest Minnesota region for its 2016 Prairie Star and Prairie Disciple awards.

The Prairie Star Award recognizes an artist whose body of work has made a significant contribution to the arts over an extended period of time and who has best exemplified the highest quality of work in the SMAC region. The work involved may have taken place within the past few years or be an accumulation of life-work.

The Prairie Disciple Award recognizes an individual whose activities and involvement have substantially contributed to the arts in southwest Minnesota. In 2016, SMAC is accepting nominations of teachers/educators only. Again, the activities involved may have taken place within the past few years or be a lifetime of contribution.

Nomination instructions and forms are available on the SW MN Arts Council website at www.swmnarts.org. The nomination deadline for both awards is Friday, April 15, 2016.
Central Minnesota Nonprofit Summit

The Minnesota Council of Nonprofits is hosting their sixth annual conference for nonprofits in Greater Minnesota, this year in St. Cloud on May 5. This day-long event is designed to bring together staff, board members and volunteers from across Minnesota to learn, network and strategize. The Summit is especially designed for small to mid-size organizations, especially those working in regional centers, small towns and rural communities.

This year’s Summit will tackle some of the most pressing themes for nonprofits in Greater Minnesota: rural philanthropy, fundraising in small communities, and a spectrum of nonprofit leadership including governance, personal leadership, organizational culture, advocacy and more. Throughout each discussion, they will look at the ways that these issues play out in our Greater Minnesota communities and they’ll highlight opportunities for building a vibrant landscape for all.

Morning Keynote Session: Reversing the Current of Underinvestment in Rural Communities
During the opening session, you’ll have a chance to hear from Minnesota-native Aaron Dorfman, executive director of the National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy. Aaron will help you grasp how foundations and nonprofits can advocate for greater funding and succeed in small towns and rural communities.

Luncheon Keynote Session: Fundraising and Thriving in a Rural Economy
Over lunch, you’ll have the opportunity to hear from a panel of speakers who will reflect on the theme of fundraising and thriving in a rural economy. They’ll address the questions, "Is there a rural funding drought?, "How do we build leadership in Greater Minnesota?" and "What are nonprofits doing to thrive in small towns?"

Go to www.minnesotanonprofits.org to learn about additional session offerings and to register. Early bird rate available through April 28. Special rates for MCN members and groups of 4+ from the same organization.

Minnesota Theater Alliance Statewide Theater Conference

This first-of-its-kind conference will take place July 9-11, 2016 at St. John’s University in Collegeville, MN. Topics will range across types of theaters and areas of expertise, from artistic to administrative, production to technical, making to managing.

Don’t miss these three days of keynotes, breakouts, hands-on sessions, and plenty of social, networking, and summer outdoor time. Overnight accommodations are plentiful and affordable, and all meals are included in the registration fee, so consider making a retreat of it.

Keynote speakers for the conference include:

Claudia Alick, Associate Producer at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival, produces events that bring OSF into artistic collaboration with the community. Named by American Theater Magazine as one of 25 theater artists who will shape American Theater in the next 25 years, Alick served as Artistic Director of Smokin' Word Productions, is a playwright, recipient of NYC Fresh Fruit directing award and the Lilla Jewel Award for Women Artists, and featured on HBO’s Def Poetry Jam.

Ben Cameron was appointed President of the Jerome and Camargo Foundations in January 2016. Prior to that he was Program Director for the Arts at the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation and Executive Director of Theatre Communications Group (TCG), the national service organization for the American nonprofit professional theater community. He holds a Master of Fine Arts degree from the Yale School of Drama.

Laura Zabel is the Executive Director of Springboard for the Arts. An expert on the relationship between the arts and community development, Zabel has spoken at leading conferences and events including the Aspen Ideas Festival, the Urban Land Institute, and Americans for the Arts. A 2014 Bush Foundation Fellow, Zabel also serves on the board of directors of the Center for Performance and Civic Practice and the Metropolitan Consortium of Community Developers.

If you register by April 15, you’ll receive $100 off the registration fee. MN Theatre Alliance members receive another $100 off. Go to www.minnesotatheateralliance.org.
