The New SMAHC Website

The Southwest Arts and Humanities Council website has a new look. The pages have been redesigned and many new features have been added. Some of the changes include the ability to communicate with SMAHC through on-line forms. If you have a question or comment, just click on the Contact Us button on the left side or you can click on "Have a Comment or Question" at the bottom of most pages and fill out the message form.

We have posted all the SMAHC grant forms, as well as Final Report forms, Revised Budget forms and several other forms for your convenience. Forms are available in Microsoft Word format, Rich Text format (rtf) or Acrobat Reader format.

We continue to list many of the events and opportunities that take place in Southwest Minnesota. These pages are updated regularly as we receive new items. So visit the Calendar and Opportunities pages regularly. You can also submit items to be included on these pages through an on-line form. Click on Submit an Event or Submit an Opportunity, fill out the form with the information you would like to include, and click on Submit.

We have a very active News page with all the latest-greatest happenings going on at SMAHC and SW Minnesota. Be sure to stop by and read the items on the News page. If you haven’t checked out the story and pictures from the Annual Meeting Celebration, be sure to visit that page.

We have a Links page with many great internet links on the Arts. If you have a link you would like added to the Links page, you can submit the link through the on-line form on that page.

You can also read about the history of SMAHC and meet the SMAHC staff and board. In the future, we will be adding artwork from our many fine artists in SW Minnesota. The website is updated frequently so visit us often!

What questions will be answered through this experience?

- Why do the arts in education matter?
- How do the arts address graduation standards?
- Where’s the money?
- Where do I find the artists?
- How do I bring artists to my classroom?
- What tools do I need to become a residency artist?
- … And more

Pre-registration is required by February 3, 2006
Space is limited so don’t delay
A free box lunch is provided to registered participants.

THE RESULTS ARE COMING!
The results of a statewide and regional economic impact study conducted by Minnesota Citizens for the Arts (MCA), and the Southwest Minnesota Arts & Humanities Council (SMAHC) will be revealed at Arts Advocacy Day, March 9, 2006, at the Minnesota History Center in St. Paul. The project, which will produce eleven regional economic impact studies as well as a statewide study, measures the economic impact of arts and culture organizations and audiences both locally and across Minnesota. Many local people and arts organizations were involved in collecting the data for this study, so we are very interested in hearing the results. The study was funded by the Forum of Regional Arts Councils of Minnesota with financial support from the McKnight Foundation.

Join us! Local arts advocates will be going to St. Paul both to be the first to hear the results and also to share them with our legislators at Arts Advocacy Day. You can sign up to be a part of the action on MCA’s website at www.mtn.org/mca or contact them at mca@mtn.org. Or contact SMAHC at smahcinfo@iw.net or call us at 800-622-5284 and we'll sign you up. Let the SMAHC staff know if you’re interested in carpooling to the Capitol.

You are also invited to join us for a special Regional Meeting where the results of our local study will be unveiled and discussed in detail. That meeting will be held in March or April. Date and location for the regional meeting have not been set but will be posted on the SMAHC website www.smahc.org as soon as the information is available.

ARTS ADVOCACY DAY is March 9, 2006. Join us at the Capital!
Our 31st Anniversary Celebration

SMAHC held its 31st Annual Meeting Celebration on October 29, 2005. It was a gala event complete with a variety of entertainment, a profitable silent auction, a superb meal, and an inspiring keynote speaker. Many of the attendees wore wonderful and creative costumes. Be sure to check out the pictures of the event at the SMAHC website (www.smahc.org).

The Silent Auction was a big success, thanks to the generosity of many businesses and individuals in Southwest Minnesota and the many guests at the celebration who bid on the items. The auction and ticket proceeds raised over $5000 dollars for SMAHC. We thank everyone who participated in the auction and all who attend our event. Thank you also to all the volunteers for your hard work. See you next year!

As part of the celebration, SMAHC was honored to present the annual winners of the Prairie Star Award and the Prairie Disciple Award. These awards are made possible with funds provided by the McKnight Foundation. This year's winners are exemplary members of the arts community.

The recipient of the Prairie Disciple Award was Louise Mack of New London, Minnesota. The Prairie Disciple award acknowledges one person who has been instrumental in promoting the arts in the 18-county area of southwestern Minnesota.

"Louise is a gem. She is a leader, team member, participant, director, producer, and perhaps most importantly the consummate volunteer advocate of the arts," says Sharon Mace, Willmar, nominator of Mack for the 2005 award. Louise Mack "consistently seeks production that are, as she says, 'a little bit edgy' to challenge and promote growth in actors, crew members, and audiences alike." In his letter of support, Marv Lucas, Director of Academic Programs at Rocori Public Schools says that "Louise exemplifies the main tenant of our organization which is to promote the arts for the enrichment of community and youth."

The recipient of the Prairie Star Award was Pat Kadlec. Pat started a community orchestra and theatre at Fort Ridgely State Park, making use of the outdoor amphitheater. She has shared her talents with The Barn Theater, the Cabaret Players in Redwood Falls and the Renville County Players in Hector. Thirteen years ago, Pat formed the Woodbury Singers as an adjunct group to the Woodbury Chorus and Orchestra when they came to perform in Bird Island. The Woodbury Singers now number close to 30 and perform regularly in Bird Island and Olivia.

It is with much sadness that we announce the passing of Pat Kadlec. Pat, a wonderful long time advocate for the arts, passed away on Thursday, December 15.
ART PROJECT GRANT DEADLINE COMING UP SOON!

The application deadline for the SMAHC Arts Project, Linkage and Local Arts Development Grant Programs is February 1, 2006. Draft applications are due January 9, 2005. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit a draft of the application before the February deadline. Staff will try to help all applicants who submit prior to the grant deadline but will guarantee assistance to those received by the draft deadline. No additions or changes to an application are allowed after February 1. Arts Project Grants provide organizations with up to $5,000 to produce or present high quality arts events. Up to $5000 is available for Linkage Grants for projects that link local arts organizations and schools for collaborative programs that benefit the local arts organizations, the school and the community. Local Arts Development Grants provide up to $4,000 to local arts organizations to strengthen their capacity to provide quality arts activities. These programs are made possible by funds provided by the McKnight Foundation and the State of Minnesota.

SMAHC is the designated regional arts council for eighteen counties in southwestern Minnesota. (Big Stone, Chippewa, Cottonwood, Jackson, Kandiyohi, Lac qui Parle, Lincoln, Lyon, McLeod, Meeker, Murray, Nobles, Pipestone, Redwood, Renville, Rock, Swift and Yellow Medicine) The organization provides financial and technical assistance to non-profit organizations and schools interested in sponsoring or producing arts activities, as well as offering grants to individual artists. Please call the SMAHC office at (507) 537-1471 or toll free at 1-800-622-5284 for information on grant guidelines or applications, or email at charles.smahc@iw.net. Grant forms are also available from the SMAHC website: www.smahc.org

For a list of other SMAHC deadlines, see page 7 of this newsletter.
